Other Developments

Mutual funds play a key role in US households' individual account-based retirement savings but are less important for traditional DB plans. Mutual funds represent $10.9 trillion, or 48 percent, of the assets held in IRAs and DC plans in September 2023. Mutual funds are also held through variable annuities (VAs), which have similar tax advantages and restrictions as retirement plans and are counted as part of Americans' nest egg for retirement. In September 2023, VA mutual fund assets outside retirement plans amounted to $1.2 trillion.
