

ICI to Co-Host ERISA 50th Anniversary Symposium and Gala

Washington, DC; November 30, 2023—The Investment Company Institute (ICI) announced that it and eight other associations will host the ERISA 50th Anniversary Symposium and Gala on Thursday, September 12, 2024, to mark five decades since the landmark law's passage.

The ERISA 50th Anniversary Symposium is a dynamic one-day program designed to honor, reflect upon, and envision the past, present, and future of ERISA. As we survey the evolving landscapes of retirement, health care and other employee benefits, the symposium will provide a platform for engaging discussions and insights from thought leaders. For those unable to join in person, the Symposium will be accessible virtually.

The Symposium will be followed by the ERISA 50th Anniversary Gala. Hosted at a historic site in the heart of Washington, DC, the gala promises an evening of elegance and celebration.

The ERISA 50th Anniversary Symposium and Gala will be a convergence of the brightest leading thinkers, creating an educational and entertaining experience like no other.

In addition to ICI, other host organizations include:

- AARP
- The American Council of Life Insurers
- American Benefits Council
- AHIP
- American Retirement Association
- Defined Contribution Institutional Investment Association
- The ERISA Industry Committee
- S. Chamber of Commerce
